

Paediatric crossword puzzle 29

Manouri P Senanayake¹, Arjuna Atapattu²

Sri Lanka Journal of Child Health, 2015; 44(4): 240

ACROSS

1. A risk in paediatric dosing
5. The single infection that causes most number of deaths on this planet
7. A 4 week old baby born after 30 weeks of gestation has a Post Age of 34 weeks
8. Gastrograffin helps in non-surgical correction of Meconium
12. First step in the Pathway to Health care is Care
14. Ascending limb of nephron is site of action of diuretics
15. Excessive consumption of a vegetable that colours skin
18. Lactulose is asynthetic disaccharide
19. A renowned international paediatric journal (abbrv)
21. Syndrome caused by accessory electrical conducting pathway between atria and ventricles
22. Cyanosis
23. Region that undertook postgraduate training of doctors in the UK
24. Important aspect of paediatric formulations

DOWN

2. In autism earliest repetitive movements are often seen in
3. Primary aldosteronism was named after
4. Neurodevelopmental disorder with wringing of hands
6. Dimercaprol is an antidote for toxic metals including arsenic
8. Used for poorly responding Crohns Disease.
9. Anti-arrhythmic that crosses the placenta
10. Food that colours urine
11. Open neural defects are prevented by
12. Autistic features are usually not seen in firstmonths
13. Common non-infective condition in infancy that benefits by use of erythromycin
16. Staple food that is deficient in the essential amino acid lysine
17. Naloxone is antidote for poisoning
20. Not necessarily a feature of hunger
21. A 5 day old should have at least fivenappies

¹Senior Professor in Paediatrics, ²Research Assistant in Paediatrics, University of Colombo