

Paediatric crossword puzzle 32

Manouri P Senanayake¹, Arjuna Atapattu²

Sri Lanka Journal of Child Health, 2016; 45(3): 233

DOI: <http://dx.doi.org/10.4038/sljch.v45i3.8152>

ACROSS

6. Investigation after three months of iron therapy
7. Zinc protoporphyrin increases in red cells in poisoning
10. Condition overlapping with cognitive difficulty and autism
12. Hospital acquired infection iscomial
13. Mosquito that transmits Zika virus
15. Measure of body fat taking height, age and sex into account
16. Syndrome of thrombocytopenia and absent radius
17. Every months has days in the Bayley Scales
18. Screening needed in children with historical refugee camp stay
20. Raised ZPP levels occur in haemolytic anaemia with red cell
21. Important organ for surveillance in Neurofibromatosis 1
22. Anticonvulsant that should be used with caution in infants and with metabolic disorders

DOWN

1. Statistical hypothesis proposing no difference
2. AST, ALT are included in biochemical investigation (abbrv)
3. Genetic test that should require consent from parents
4. In iron deficiency, a ion is incorporated into haem
5. Gait due to severe bowing of legs
8. Possible reason for acute wheezing to not settle by salbutamol nebulization
9. Neurological disease implicated as associated with Zika viral infection (abbrv)
11. Previously normal infant with a genetic epilepsy syndrome commonly originating following immunization
14. Stool test indicative of pancreatic deficiency
15. Insects producing source of botulinum poison
19. Public health risk of microcephaly is caused by

¹Department of Paediatrics, Faculty of Medicine, Colombo

²University Paediatric Unit, Lady Ridgeway Hospital for Children, Colombo